6. CHANDRAKANTHA GUEST HOUSE (CHEER CHAYAN)

Sahstradhara rd.

Rooms are OK, attached bathrooms, homely atmosphere, interesting ambiance.

The family is running a handloom business in the courtyard, which can be disturbing, as you can hear the noise of the weaving, the guest rooms are just above the weaving unit.

Owners are very friendly and also caring if you need any help and know our Goshala, chai available, no food

Handloom items are sold in the attached showroom, famous Maheshwar Saris, shawls, dress material, bargaining possible.

You can watch the ladies weaving in the courtyard.

THESE TWO HOTELS ARE IN TOWN, NEXT TO THE FORT

1. LABOOS CAFÉ & LODGE

Ahilya Fort, near main gate

Our favorite Café place when we have to go to town,
Food and snacks available, wonderful MasalaChai and great sparkling Ginger Lime Soda!

Available rooms and tariff:

Has 5 great rooms in the historical outside walls of the fort, furnished with antique furniture, great bathrooms. The 6th room which is available is a bit damp and is on the other side of the road.

No AC, (not necessary, the thick, old stone walls keep the rooms cool in summer and warm in winter ), unfortunately nobody speaks English.

Rooms..... Rs 1500

Check out time: 12 noon
